

Learning Computer Science by Making

Professional Development Agenda

Monday, July 6, 2026

1. Welcome and Orientation at 8:45
2. Hello world – Introduction to the Micro:bit, Makecode, and making
3. Break, 10:00
4. Blink a LED, blink more than one LEDs
5. The Four Functions of a Computer, Building Blocks of programs, and DLCS introduction, including data science and AI
6. Lunch, 11:30 – 12:30
7. Variations and extensions of LED blinking (e.g. Blink 2 LEDs. Add a third. Experiment with blinking patterns.)
8. Break, 2:00
9. Push button to take temperature - introduce variables and record data (data science) and use AI to predict temperature overnight. Set up to record overnight.
10. Adjourn, 3:00